WHY INVEST IN MYANMAR

The Republic of the Union of Myanmar is situated in the south East Asia with five neighboring countries- Thailand and Laos to the east and south east, Bangladesh to the west, India to the north-west and China to the north and north east.

The Bay of Bengal and the Andaman Sea are the southern boundaries of the country.

The country area is 677,000 square kilometers: 936 kilometers from east to west and 2051 kilometers from north to south.

Myanmar is the second largest country in ASEAN.

The total population in Myanmar was estimated at 53.4 million in 2017.

Population-wise Myanmar is still the least habited area among the neighbors. Population density per square kilo meter is 197 in 2014.

The 70% of population involved in livestock and agriculture industry.

Addition to this, Myanmar can provide exceptional resources for investors.

Water - 10 times as much per capita as China
2 times as much as Vietnam, Thailand and Bangladesh.

Land - 14 million acres virgin and fallow; 83 million acres
Strategic location - near major regional markets, along the 21st century silk road.

Easy access to the world's most populated countries, China and India.

Myanmar is a member of ASEAN and ASEAN Free Trade Area (AFTA).
